

Sou can pick up a walking tour map or an audio driving tour CD at the Convention & Visitors Bureau.

The Nacogdoches Convention & Visitors Bureau (CVB) is located at 200 E. Main Street, in the middle of the square in historic downtown Nacogdoches. Inside this beautifully restored Federal building are displays of historic interest, tourist information, and public restrooms. The grounds of the CVB are beautifully landscaped and markers detail some of our rich history.

Visitors' Center hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday.

Visitors to downtown can request a parking permit at the CVB front desk that will allow you to shop on the red brick streets all day long without a time restraint!

Welcome to Downtown Nacogdoches the original shopping center!

One of the most unique aspects of Nacogdoches is the large number of locally owned specialty and antique stores you'll find here. Visit Nacogdoches' countless family-owned shops and restaurants; places that still do business the old-fashioned way. Stop into an old time string shop, the only professional stained glass studio in East Texas and an old-style barbershop like your dad used to visit.

Downtown Nacogdoches is also alive with history. The Durst Taylor House & Gardens built circa 1830s is the second oldest structure in Nacogdoches. The Nacogdoches Railroad Depot, built in 1911, has just recently been restored to its original grandeur. You can also stop by the Sterne-Hoya House Museum, built by Adolphus Sterne, a prominent leader in the fight for Texas Independence. Or, visit the Old University Building, the oldest university chartered by the Republic of Texas still standing.

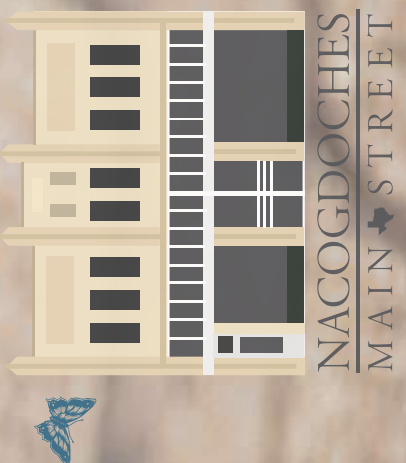

So please join in in historic downtown Nacogdoches, the original shopping center, there's no other place in Texas like it!
